DRESS CODE 2017

DRESS CODE REGULATIONS

The Education Act 2006 states the School dress code provides for:

- Standards of what is acceptable in relation to clothing, including headwear and footwear.
- Standards of what is acceptable in relation to other aspects of the personal presentation of the students.

The Nanango State High School P&C believe that the schools uniform and Dress code:

- Provides the students of NSHS a unique identity
- Promotes a sense of belonging and pride in NSHS and its community
- Creates a sense of equity for the students
- Is practical in its application to a wide range of physical activities
- Eliminates competition for costly brand name and 'fad' clothing and the wearing of inappropriate or immodest clothing and accessories
- Ensures students observe standards of dress that support Workplace Health and Safety(WPH&S)

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DRESS CODE

While it is expected that students will comply with the schools dress code the Principal may, in special circumstances, exempt students upon written request from the Parent/Guardian. Grounds on which a Parent/Guardian may seek an exemption are:

- Medical supported by a written statement from a Medical Practitioner(Doctor)
- Religious, cultural or ethnic
