

DRESS CODE

NANANGO STATE HIGH SCHOOL

Dress Code Regulations

The Education Act 2006 states the School dress code provides for:

- Standards of what is acceptable in relation to clothing, including headwear and footwear
- Standards of what is acceptable in relation to other aspects of the personal presentation of the students

The Nanango State High School P&C believe that the school's uniform and Dress Code:

- Provides the students of NSHS a unique identity
- Promotes a sense of belonging and pride in NSHS and its community
- Creates a sense of equity for the students
- Is practical in its application to a wide range of physical activities
- Eliminates competition for costly brand name and 'fad' clothing and the wearing of inappropriate or immodest clothing and accessories
- Ensures students observe standards of dress that support Workplace Health and Safety (WPH&S) e.g. appropriate footwear, sun safety

Implementation of the Dress Code

While it is expected that students will comply with the school's dress code the Principal may, in special circumstances, exempt students upon written request from the Parent/Guardian. Grounds on which a Parent/Guardian may seek an exemption are:

- Medical supported by a written statement from a Medical Practitioner (Doctor)
- Religious, cultural or ethnic

Compliance Obligations

1. Students not in full School uniform, go to the Administration Office before going to class where clean loan uniform item/s will be provided for the day.
2. Parents/Caregivers are asked to contact the school if there are circumstances preventing students wearing the school uniform on a particular day, a clean loan uniform will be provided
3. Students wearing makeup will be expected to remove it
4. Fingernails are to be an appropriate and safe length for school activities e.g. sport
5. Student wearing excessive or non-compliant jewellery will be expected to remove the items, these items may be confiscated and stored at the office for later return to the student or parent

Non-Compliance

1. Parents/Caregivers will be contacted by phone or letter if students persistently breach the School Dress Code. This may include a request for a meeting to resolve difficulties
2. Repeated infringements of the Dress Code may result in (not limited to):
 - Preventing the student from attending or participating in activities in which the student is a representative of the school,
 - Detentions for refusal to follow school procedures
